MOSAIC CIRCLE

The MOSAIC Series spotlights the Lied Center's commitment to artistic excellence, integration and social responsibility. This Series advances education and awareness around issues of diversity, equity and inclusion. By offering global perspectives through music, dance and theater, the MOSAIC Series strives to raise cultural awareness and ultimately empathy for diverse human experiences.

This passionate patron group significantly supports the Lied Center in bringing diverse music, dance and theater artists to Nebraska audiences on the stage, in the classroom, and throughout the community. We are proud to recognize our MOSAIC Circle members throughout the season for their generous contributions.
